

How can we achieve the Tobacco endgame in the APSR region – lessons from the Aotearoa/New Zealand and Malaysian experience

 Thursday 25 July 2024

 21:00 - 22:00 New Zealand time (UTC+12)

CHAIRPERSONS & SPEAKERS

Dr Henry Marshall

The University of Queensland and the Prince Charles Hospital, Brisbane Australia

CHAIRPERSON

Dr Paul Dawkins

Respiratory physician Middlemore Hospital and the University of Auckland, New Zealand

SPEAKER

Dr Stuart Jones

Respiratory and General Physician Middlemore Hospital and the University of Auckland, New Zealand

SPEAKER

Dr Janet Hoek

co-Director ASPIRE Aotearoa Research Centre, University of Otago, New Zealand

SPEAKER

Dr Nurhayati Mohd Marzuki

Director, Institut Perubatan Respiratori Hospital Kuala Lumpur Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

SPEAKER

AGENDA

1. Opening Remark & Introduction
2. 'What is the tobacco endgame' by Dr Paul Dawkins
3. 'New Zealand experience' by Dr Stuart Jones
4. 'Malaysian experience' by Dr Nurhayati Mohd Marzuki
5. 'Moving forward' by Dr Janet Hoek
6. Questions and Discussion
7. Closing Remark

This program is recognised as an accredited CME activity in Bangladesh, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Malaysia, Mongolia, the Philippines, Singapore, Sri Lanka and Taiwan.

Register now at :

<https://apsresp.org//archive/webinar/20240725.php>